SUPERHEROES TO THE RESCUE

Superhero Window Cleaners

Batman is climbing up the building. Superman is looking through a window at a boy in a hospital bed. Are we watching an action film at the cinema? No, we aren't. We are watching Chris Stoness and his team of window cleaners. They are at Kingston General Hospital in Ontario, Canada and they're cleaning windows. They do this every day, but today, they are wearing superhero costumes and all the children are smiling.

Children often hate hospitals, but right now they aren't thinking about their problems. They are watching their favourite superheroes – Batman, Spiderman, Ironman, Superman, Thor and GI Joe. The men wash windows every day, but today they're doing something special to help the children at the hospital.

Superhero Police Officers

It's Superhero Day at Dell Children's Medical Center in Austin, Texas. The superheroes are trying to catch supervillains Poison Ivy and Bane, and the children are helping them. Batgirl, Captain America, Hawkeye, Raven, Spiderman, Thor, Wolverine and Wonder Woman are climbing down the hospital walls after the villains, and the children are having fun.

Every year, members of the community wear superhero costumes and practise their superhero skills at the hospital. At this year's event, the superheroes are police officers from the Austin police station.
